Munich Private Equity Partners appoints John Morrison as a Managing Director

Munich Private Equity Partners (“MPEP”), the investment management arm of RWB Group, the leading German financial services group, has appointed John Morrison as a Managing Director.

Headquartered in Munich and led by Horst Güdel, the MPEP team invests globally in private equity funds across all market segments, on both a primary and secondary basis. MPEP’s clients include USD 2.3bn of assets managed on behalf of RWB Group.

MPEP builds on many years of experience built up within the RWB Group, in the identification, selection and subsequent investment in top quartile private equity funds. The firm offers its clients tailored solutions which provide comprehensive access to global private equity markets.

Norman Lemke, Managing Director and co-founder of RWB Group, said “We are delighted that John has chosen to join the MPEP team. His background, relationships and industry knowledge of private equity will complement the team’s experience as it seeks to grow further and attract new clients”.
