Sebastian Schwarzenegger joins Munich Private Equity Partners as Co-Head of Business Development

- The main focus of his work will be the acquisition and servicing of new investors across Europe
- Schwarzenegger comes from Edmond de Rothschild, where he served as an Executive Director responsible for servicing German and Austrian investors

Munich, September 27, 2022. Munich Private Equity Partners (MPEP) is further expanding its business development capabilities and has appointed Sebastian Schwarzenegger as Co-Head of Business Development. Since September 15, the Austrian native is responsible for acquiring and servicing institutional clients and sales partners with focus on the DACH region. In this position, Schwarzenegger will also contribute to the ongoing further development of MPEP's institutional sales strategy.

"With Sebastian Schwarzenegger, we are gaining a business development professional with a proven track record of helping institutional investors building out their alternative investment exposure based on their specific needs", says Christopher Bär, Managing Director at Munich Private Equity Partners. "With his experience and excellent network, he will actively contribute to further expanding our investor base while maintaining the high quality of service that our clients and partners expect."

Before joining Munich Private Equity Partners, Schwarzenegger was Executive Director at Edmond de Rothschild and responsible for servicing German and Austrian investors, i.e. private and commercial banks, insurance companies, pension funds, family offices and wealth managers. Prior to that, he worked for Goldman Sachs Asset Management in London and Frankfurt where he served investors in Germany.
